

Vulcan Materials plans to set up a new open-pit limestone quarry in a non-industrial area of central Comal County, between Bulverde and New Braunfels.

- 1,500 acres
- Nearly three miles across
- 1,467 football fields
- 24 x 7 x 365 operations
- 410 truck trips/day
- 75,000 loads/year

Schools, neighborhoods, natural attractions, and over 12,000 residents were here first.

stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. Courthouse March ົດ @ 9:00 am stop3009vulcanquarry.com

March 6 @ 9:00 am Comal Co. Courthouse

stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. March ົດ 9 Courthouse 9:00 am stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. Courthouse stop3009vulcanquarry.com March ົດ @ 9:00 am

Comal Co. Courthouse March 6 @ 9:00 am stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. March ົດ 9 Courthouse 9:00 am

stop3009vulcanquarry.com

March Comal Co. Courthouse am

ົດ @ 9:00

stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. Courthouse  stop3009vulcanquarry.com

Comal Co. March 6

Courthouse

ව

9:00 am stop3009vulcanquarry.com Comal Co. Courthouse March 6 @ 9:00 am

Comal County: It's Your Last Chance.

To request affected party status, you must attend this hearing and show how you will be personally affected.

Join your neighbors to protect our quality of life!

Even if TCEQ has already denied your request or you think affected party status is a long shot, please show up, sign up, voice your concerns, and request affected party status.

SOAH Preliminary Hearing

WHEN? Wed., March 6 @ 9:00 am-arrive 30 mins. early

WHERE? Comal County Courthouse, New Braunfels

MORE INFO: www.stop3009vulcanquarry.com

Stop 3009 Vulcan Quarry